

I. What can WE LEARN from this?

1. The question becomes, "What is the _____ of the 'temple' today?"
 - a. I Corinthians 6:19-20
 - b. I Peter 2:5, 9-10
 - c. From these two passages, it seems clear that
 1. _____, individually, are the " _____ " of God.
 2. The _____, collectively, is the " _____ " or " _____ " of God.
2. Let's make some applications about how God must feel about His people, based on Jesus' response concerning the physical temple:
 - a. Our Christianity can become _____ Christianity, no longer _____ God's perfect plan, but having become a _____ of what God wants and what _____ want. James 4:4; 2 Timothy 3:1-5
 - b. Sometimes this can show itself in our desire to _____ from our _____, at the cost of other _____, and ultimately our own. Discuss how this happens.
 - c. _____ can MAKE you "cleanse your temple"; until you are ready to practice _____ Christianity, you won't!
 - d. When we see things going on in the Lord's _____ that are going to _____ it, whether it is being done by us or not, we should take _____ - I Corinthians 5
 - e. When we are _____ by others about our Christianity or our _____ towards it, we would do well to _____!

The things that make us ANGRY should be the same things that made JESUS angry. If we focused our anger on the things that truly mattered, we would be more like Him!
