February Review:

Our second meeting for 2010 was on Tuesday, the 23rd. We had a wonderful crowd with three visitors. James King led a beautiful prayer to begin our devotional, followed by Bobby Latham directing our singing in a good way. Our message was delivered by Bro. Gene Davis, minister of the Mayfield congregation. His message was personal, practical, informative and uplifting. Our cooks provided us with delicious comfort foods in abundance. Following our meal, our "Show and Tell" segment about old relics went over well. It was a great meeting!

Unexpected Reward

I recall that when I was a small boy, mother gave me a bouquet of Lilies-of-the-Valley and directed me to take them down the street to a neighbor who was ill. When I returned, she said, "smell your hands." I sniffed, and to my childish delight, I found that my hands still bore the delicate odor of the flowers. Then my mother said something I shall never forget. "Flowers always leave some of their fragrance on the hands of the giver." Life itself is like that. Every good deed or action towards someone else is bound to leave us a sweeter person.

The Idea Church Is

- An emergency room for the sick and hurting.
- An oasis for the tired and discouraged.
- A boot camp for new Christians.
- A seminary for spiritual and intellectual development.
- A family for those who attend.
- A recruiting center for those who have yet to believe.

March Preview:

Our next regular meeting will be on Tuesday, March 23rd at 10:00 AM. Prior to this meeting, we have 14 signed up to take an all-day outing to the Florence area where we will eat, and visit several places including the Christian Children's Home where Don Williams serves as the Director. On the 23rd, we will eat at Logan's. Make your plans to be here!

“An Old Farmer’s Advice”

Live Simply. Love generously. Care deeply. Speak kindly. Leave the rest to God!

Your fences need to be horse-high, pig tight, and bull-strong.

Life is simpler when you plow around the stump.

A bumblebee is considerably faster than a John Deere tractor.

Words that soak into your ears are whispered...not yelled.

Meanness don't jes' happen overnight.

Forgive your enemies. It messes up their heads.

Do not corner something that you know is meaner than you.

You cannot unsay a cruel word.

Every path has a few puddles.

When you wallow with pigs, expect to get dirty.

The best sermons are lived, not preached.

Most of the stuff people worry about ain't never gonna happen, anyway.

Don't judge folks by their relatives.

Remember that silence is sometimes the best answer.

Live a good, honorable life. Then when you get older and think back, you'll enjoy it a second time.

Don't interfere with somethin' that ain't botherin' you none.

If you find yourself in a hole, the first thing to do is stop diggin'.

The biggest troublemaker you'll probably ever have to deal with watches you from the mirror every mornin'.

Good judgment comes from experience, and a lotta that comes from bad judgment.

Lettin' the cat outta the bag is a whole lot easier than puttin' it back in.

If you get to thinkin' you're a person of influence, try orderin' somebody else's dog around.

God Is Still There

When days get rough, as they sometimes will;

When your world stops sudden, and stands so still;

Remember friend-God is still there, trust yourself to His loving care.

When tragic moments rise to view; to haunt your mind,

And hurt renew; remember friend- God is still there, Put yourself in His loving care.

When nights are lonely, and days so long; When your heart aches so, and has no song; Remember friend-God is still there, Cast yourself on His loving care.

When tears flow freely, as they often do; When you're afraid that you won't get through;

Remember friend-God is still there, Turn to Him in humble prayer.

And, then one day, as sorrows dim; And you've made it through, thanks to Him;

Remember friend-God is still there.

Praise Him for His loving care.

“God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.” (Psa. 46: 1).

“They that sow in tears shall reap in joy.” (Psa. 126: 5).

Just Thinkin’

“It’s not the will to win, but the will to prepare to win that makes the difference.” Coach Paul “Bear” Bryant—The University of Alabama.

“We must be the change we wish to see.”

“You can be young only once but you can be immature forever.”

“Instead of complaining about all the things we don’t get that we want, why not be grateful that we don’t get all the things we deserve?”

There is no pillow so soft as a clear conscience.

Better poor and humble, than proud and rich.

Some use Christianity like a bus..they ride on it only while it’s going their way.

People can be divided into three groups; those who make things happen, those who watch things happen and those who wonder what happened!
